The Marshall Testimony.—The following correspondence has taken place between Etherst A. Marshall, Esq., and his friends, with the New-York Tribune, New-York, Saturday, July 14, 1851.

A MARSHALL, Esq.—The undersigned, your fellow-citizens, desireous of testifying, have requested for your moral and ethical support in the cause of the slaves during your managerial office in this and other cities of the Union—qualities more particularly manifested in your management of the Broadway Theatre—wrote in tendering to you this evidence that, while we are anxious to have you present that you will attend, we are equally anxious that you will take place at such time and in such place as shall seem best, to enable us to arrive at the object we have in view, namely: a compliment worthy of the Drama of yourself, and communication with the friends with whom you hold as a manager and a man. Yours, respectively,

JENNY F. QUACKENBOS, Secretary.
